

RICH ZINC MINES

O. C. Daisy With Other Wichita Men Have Three Mills.

ORE ENOUGH IN SIGHT

On Their Claims to Run Four Years—Big Offer for Claim.

O. C. Daisy, socially gay and good hearted, physically fat and robust, a man admired for his jovial disposition and ever-lasting pluck, is on the road to wealth, and in his old days he may be able to retire with a large competence for himself and several checkbooks to spare. Mr. Daisy went through the Wichita boom and at times could have quit a very wealthy man, but he stayed with Wichita and his faith in her until he emerged with a depleted exchequer. He never grumbled. He has laughed just as much since as he ever laughed before, and on this account there is no one but who would be glad to know of his good fortune now.

Mr. Daisy's mining interests which he has recently acquired in the Joplin district are going to pay. Good reports are being received every week and his holdings have doubled in value many times since he got them a few months ago.

Mr. Daisy has mined more or less ever since he was 17 years old, and he has a vast experience. Last summer he went over to the Joplin district and went all over the field. He finally found a quarter section of land which he noticed was surrounded with claims that were being developed and showed evidence of much richness. This quarter, though bordering on these claims, had not been touched. Mr. Daisy found that it could be bought for $25 per acre. He came back to Wichita and interested several of his friends in the deal, as he was not able to buy it alone. Messrs. W. W. Pearce, Whitney Tucker, John Moore, Oscar Smith and R. L. Eaton took shares with Daisy. The claim cost them $1,000. They have not done a lick of work on it and it is reported they were the other day offered $16,000 for it. The offer was no inducement. The claims on each side of it are being developed and their richness enhances the value of this claim without having to put a cent in it.

This encouraged Mr. Daisy and he looked around for other snags. He found an old abandoned claim that had been worked years ago when they had to haul their ore over a hundred miles to a smelter in Arkansas. He dropped a stone in the immense hole and heard it strike bottom, showing that all of the water had been pumped out. There were great piles of old ore on the top—enough, it is said, to pay for erecting a mill on the spot. He interested capitalists in this mine and took an interest in the property. A mill is now being erected on the ground and there is plenty of ore in sight to keep it running and for the development of the mine.

Mr. Daisy went out again. He found a neglected mine which had been worked some and was nearly abandoned by men who were not able to improve it. Mr. Daisy took a Joplin capitalist out to the place and they bought it. There are great walls of ore in sight, enough to run a mill for years. A mill is being erected on this property. Mr. Daisy and others are also building another mill where there is plenty of pay dirt and it is in much demand. This makes three mills Mr. Daisy is interested in, besides the one he has already all of which are getting more valuable every day. The mills will soon be bringing an income. If all of these ventures pay, as those who know say they will, Mr. Daisy will soon be able to sprinkle the streets of Wichita with Manitowater.

There are said to be close to twenty-five rich mines in the Joplin district, and a great many of them are making money.

FAREWELL TO CHUCK FLOYD

Surprised by His Friends on His Departure From Wichita.

The friends of Rev. Chuck Floyd of the Fletcher-Floyd Candy company presented him with a fine valise, Thursday evening, just before he stepped on the train for Kansas City, where he has located permanently. Those who were interested in the gift were Clarence R. Fulton, Fred Dold, L. R. Delaney, T. P. Kelso, R. L. Eaton, Eddie Kohr, Lee Steele, L. M. Bates and W. O. Judd. The gift was one of the finest Mr. Fulton could buy and is especially adapted for commercial travelers. The friends accompanied Mr. Floyd to the train while they were waiting for the train the gift was brought in and put beside Mr. Floyd. L. R. Delaney made the presentation speech which was profuse in eloquent testimonials and tender sentiment for one whom they had learned to respect most highly. Mr. Floyd's response was obstructed by the surprise and emotion with which he was overwhelmed. When he opened the elegant gift he was again surprised by finding it filled with the following articles, all useful and necessary to a traveling man's wardrobe and equipment: Bunch of almanacs, one dozen Santa Fe folders, one corkcutter, 1 horse pistol, 1 dagger, 1 razor with a saw edge, 1 bottle of Manitowater, 1 deck of cards, 1 5-cent bunch Kiss-me-cheering gum, 1 pint of rice, 1 5-cent cigar.

CAPTAIN PRICE SICK

Brought From Mountain to Wichita Hospital.

Captain J. C. Price, who explored the Wichita mountains a year or two ago and who knows more about that country than any other man living, is sick in the Wichita hospital. He is now editor of the Southwestern Progress at Mountain View, Oklahoma.

"Our baby was sick for a month with severe cough and catarrhal fever. Although we tried many remedies she kept getting worse until we used One Minute Cough Cure, it relieved at once and cured her in a few days."—B. L. Nance, Pres. High School, Bluffdale, Texas. FIRE ON WEST SIDE

Lamp Exploded at Home of Late Simpson.

A lamp exploded in the hallway at the home of Late Simpson, corner of University and Fern avenues, last night and started a big fire. The fire boys were called out and made a very quick run, but the danger was over when they arrived.

TO PRONOUNCE FRENCH

Names Used in the Trial of Captain Dreyfus.

The keen interest Wichita people have taken in the Dreyfus trial has led to many inquiries as to how to pronounce the French names used in the dispatches.

There are over 50 French words in every day use in the dispatches, and when the advertising committee starts out to show their colors the people of southwestern Kansas and Oklahoma will admit that the largest streets are away behind the Wichita street fair in up-to-date, new and novel ideas in advertising. The people who visit Wichita in October will be treated to the biggest, best and greatest week of entertainment ever given in any city this year.

All weak places in your system effectually closed against disease by DeWitt's Little Early Risers. They cleanse the bowels, promptly cure chronic constipation, regulate the liver, and fill you with new life and vigor. Small, pleasant, sure; never gripe. Gus Saur, 221 East Douglas, Geo. WILL BE A STUNNER

Wichita Pays Bills for Biggest Street Fair in Kansas

TWELVE BANDS COMING

To Contest for Big Prizes Offered.

The street fair and carnival which will be held in this city in October, promises to be one of the greatest weeks of entertainment ever given by any city in Kansas and the southwest. The management has so far succeeded in closing contracts with some of the best aggregations ever given together for a week's entertainment. The secretary's office is beyond question the busiest place in the city. A large mail is being sent and received every day, and responses from almost every city in the United States is received by every mail. One of the strongest attractions that will be seen here during fair week will be a midway exhibition of Oriental troupe of novel features never before seen in any city, except at the Chicago and Omaha expositions. The amusement department that is being arranged for by Secretary Lockwood will be the strongest combined aggregation of talent ever seen in this city. Besides the Midway, there will be a daily balloon ascension by the well known aeronauts, Professors Baldwin and Carrow, who will take with them into the clouds animals of various kinds that will descend to the earth in separate parachutes, besides trick bicycle riders and high divers. They will also make two illuminated balloon ascensions. The great European illuminated sensational bicycle rider, Irebo, will give daily performances on a high wire stretched from building to building across the main streets. At night this marvelous Irebo will give a pyrotechnic exhibition on a cable, giving an exhibition of the United States Steamer Olympia in action and also another exhibition of Niagara Falls, making one of the most thrilling scenes ever shown in the country, and another attraction will be the only living human naboon in existence. He will come direct to this city from Toronto, Canada. Secretary Lockwood is going to give the people of Wichita and the surrounding country the greatest treat in the line of attractions that can be had for money, and a great many other new and novel sensational features are going to be added to the long list already under contract.

There will be over twelve bands here for the civic and flower parade. Large prizes will be given for a musical jubilee. The agricultural display promises to surpass anything yet seen in the country on a permanent basis. The colors of the parade are offered for this exhibit.

The streets will be illuminated with thousands of electric colored lights. At several of the street corners will be built beautiful cornucopias of elaborate designs. At the main entrance one of the designs of arches at the World's Fair will be duplicated in imitation stone, profusely decorated and lighted at night with 500 colored electric lamps. The colors of the committee on decoration adopted for the decoration of buildings and other features, will be Red, Orange and White. The carnival colors will be Red, Yellow and Green. The flower parade will select official colors and announce them at an early date. Every department of the street fair and carnival is progressing at a rapid pace. It is now conceded that Wichita will take the lead in all the undertakings, and when the advertising committee starts out to show their colors the people of southwestern Kansas and Oklahoma will admit that the largest streets are away behind the Wichita street fair in up-to-date, new and novel ideas in advertising. The people who visit Wichita in October will be treated to the biggest, best and greatest week of entertainment ever given in any city this year.

MR. PLASTER OF PARIS

Will be in Wichita to See "What Happened to Jones"

LIST OF SEASON'S PLAYS

Number of Good Companies Have Been Booked.

Manager Martling has booked an unusually strong list of attractions for the theatre season in Wichita this year and while a number of companies cancel their dates every year for every opera house, Wichita will get enough of the companies booked to make the season unusually attractive. "What Happened to Jones," was on the boards for Wichita last year and everything indicated the biggest house of the season but Clark who was playing Jones fell sick and the company disbanded at Kansas City. A great many company's managers care very little for a contract if they are not in humor to make a town when the time arrives and either go around a place they don't want to make or turn and go back west. Some players booked for Wichita play in Kansas City. They make Topeka and then jump to Denver. So it is probably that not all the companies booked will come but for the Mr. Martling is in no way to blame. He has contracted for a good list of winter amusements. Several in the Martling, who has pleased Wichita so well, will be back again. "The Texas Steer" will be here again. "What Happened to Jones" is booked again with better prospects than last year. "Town Topics," "Paul Hauer," "Gillmore's band," "Morrison's Faust," "Beach and Bowers minstrels," "Real W. do Brown," "Contented Woman" and "Mr. Plaster of Paris" are among the good ones. The list is nearly complete and can be had in as follows:

"Mahara's Minstrels," "Jimmie Celler's Reception," "Town Topics," "Herman the Magician," "Jolly Old Chums," "Texas Steer," "Divorce by Proxy," "Chattanooga," "Rococo and Holland's Minstrels," "Josh Simpkins," "Hot Old Time," "Hustler," "Paul Hauer," "A Black Sheep," "Scott's Minstrels," "Paul Gilmore," "Stetson's 'Uncle Tom,'" "Two Married Men," "Under the Dome," "Martina's 'Uncle Tom,'" "Gillmore's Band," "Morrison's Faust," "Beach and Bowers minstrels," "Kline Autograph," "Ed Hansen Ben All," "Mona Stock company," "In Old Kentucky," "Beach and Bowers Minstrels," "Ed Hansen," "Trip to Chinatown," "Bell Rockman," "A Stranger in New York," "Black Patti Troubadours," "In Darkest Russia," "What Happened to Jones," "Real Widow Brown," "Remembrance of the Maine," "Ferdinand Comedians," "Northwest," "Ball Brothers' Minstrels," "Aspy Comedy company," "Little Minister," "The Boys," "Girl From Chili," "The Colonel" and the "Contented Woman."
